

BAYOU BEND
SUMMER
HISTORY
CAMP 2020

CRAFTING AMERICA

Become a history detective!

Bayou Bend's collection of American objects is the entry point for an engaging camp program where 21st-century kids forge metal, mold candles, write with quill pens, play colonial-era games, and work with experts in art and history. The camp's thoughtful curriculum challenges campers to form opinions based on asking questions and making discoveries through active participation.

Who is eligible?

Students entering or exiting the 5th grade with passing grades may apply. Families must supply own transportation and a sack lunch daily.

Tuition

- $375 General admission
- $350 MFAH members
(membership number required at time of payment)

A limited number of full and partial scholarships are available; see Scholarship Application Form for more information. (Scholarship applications must be received by April 16, 2020.)

2020 CAMP WEEKS

9:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m. (drop-off begins at 8:30; pickup deadline is 5:15 p.m.)

Campers attend only one week of camp, all five days.

To apply for a camp scholarship, please submit along with your application:

A 100–150 word essay by the student, entitled, "My American Story." Essays may be typed or handwritten (handwriting must be legible; essays that cannot be read will not be considered); and should explain why the child is interested in American history, particularly colonial America.

Essays are preferred, but alternate submissions include:*

A copy of a school assignment or related project focused on American history.

(Examples include book reports, two-dimensional artwork, or audio/visual material.)

OR

Photos or a video of the child completing an American history-related project during the 2019–2020 school year.

Hard copy submissions of photos, assignments, etc. may be mailed; digital copies should be sent via Dropbox to jmilillo@mfa.org. Submissions will not be returned.*
