

BAYOU BEND SUMMER HISTORY CAMP 2018

CRAFTING AMERICA

Become a history detective!

Bayou Bend's collection of American objects is the entry point for an engaging camp program where 21st-century kids forge metal, mold candles, write with quill pens, play colonial-era games, and work with experts in art and history. The camp's thoughtful curriculum challenges campers to form opinions based on asking questions and making discoveries through active participation.

Who is eligible?

Students entering or exiting the 5th grade with passing grades may apply. Families must supply own transportation and a sack lunch daily.

Tuition:

- $375 General admission
- $350 Museum members
(membership number required at time of payment)
